		50X1-HUN
Print to a county visiting, management on (CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
ı	NFORMATION REPORT This material contains information affecting the N tional Defense of the United States within the mes ing of the Espionage Laws, Title 18, U.S.C. Secs. and 794, the transmission or revelation of which any manner to an unauthorized person is prohibit	n- 793 in
	S-E-C-R-E-T	50X1-HUM
DUNTRY	Korea REPORT
IBJECT	North Korean Army and Communist DATE DISTR. 1 April 1955 Chinese Forces in Sinuiju, North	, Korea NO. OF PAGES 2
TE OF INFO.	REQUIREMENT NO. RD
ACE ACQUIRE	REFERENCES	50X1-HUN

	THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. (FOR KEY SEE REVERSE)	EOV4 1111N4
no :	Sinuiju, North Korea was occupied by infantry troops of both North Korean army (NKA) and the Communist Chinese forces (CCF). There were artillery or armored troops in the area. The NKA units served concurrently	50X1-HUM
the no as guar free the Kord the exist were	Sinuiju, North Korea was occupied by infantry troops of both
the no as guar free the Kord the exist were	Sinuiju, North Korea was occupied by infantry troops of both North Korean army (NKA) and the Communist Chinese forces (CCF). There were artillery or armored troops in the area. The NKA units served concurrently security forces and policemen, and the CCF troops were responsible for rding military installations. The civilian population of Sinuiju was allowedom of movement except in areas permanently guarded by the CCF: airfields; bridge over the Yalu River, particularly the bridge approach on the sen side; the main railroad passenger station; and the railroad bridges on Sinuiju-P'yongyang line (N 40-06, E 124-24) (YE1039). Friendly relations sted between the NKA and CCF troops, mainly because the functions of each clearly defined.
the no as guar free the Kord the exidence were	Sinuiju, North Korea was occupied by infantry troops of both North Korean army (NKA) and the Communist Chinese forces (CCF). There were artillery or armored troops in the area. The NKA units served concurrently security forces and policemen, and the CCF troops were responsible for rding military installations. The civilian population of Sinuiju was allowedom of movement except in areas permanently guarded by the CCF: airfields; bridge over the Yalu River, particularly the bridge approach on the sen side; the main railroad passenger station; and the railroad bridges on Sinuiju-P'yongyang line (N 40-06, E 124-24) (YE1039). Friendly relations sted between the NKA and CCF troops, mainly because the functions of each clearly defined. NKA and CCF troops stationed in Sinuiju equalled the strength of about one entry regiment, and were distributed as follows:
the no as guar free the Kord the eximal were	Sinuiju, North Korea was occupied by infantry troops of both North Korean army (NKA) and the Communist Chinese forces (CCF). There were artillery or armored troops in the area. The NKA units served concurrently security forces and policemen, and the CCF troops were responsible for rding military installations. The civilian population of Sinuiju was allowed and of movement except in areas permanently guarded by the CCF: airfields; bridge over the Yalu River, particularly the bridge approach on the ean side; the main railroad passenger station; and the railroad bridges on Sinuiju-P'yongyang line (N 40-06, E 124-24) (YE1039). Friendly relations sted between the NKA and CCF troops, mainly because the functions of each acclearly defined. NKA and CCF troops stationed in Sinuiju equalled the strength of about one antry regiment, and were distributed as follows:	đ
the no as guar free the Kord the exidence were	Sinuiju, North Korea was occupied by infantry troops of both North Korean army (NKA) and the Communist Chinese forces (CCF). There were artillery or armored troops in the area. The NKA units served concurrently security forces and policemen, and the CCF troops were responsible for rding military installations. The civilian population of Sinuiju was allowed and of movement except in areas permanently guarded by the CCF: airfields; bridge over the Yalu River, particularly the bridge approach on the sanside; the main railroad passenger station; and the railroad bridges on Sinuiju-P'yongyang line (N 40-06, E 124-24) (YE1039). Friendly relations sted between the NKA and CCF troops, mainly because the functions of each a clearly defined. NKA and CCF troops stationed in Sinuiju equalled the strength of about one antry regiment, and were distributed as follows: CCF- one battalion. (1) One company guarded the airfield.	đ
the no as guar free the Kord the exidence were	Sinuiju, North Korea was occupied by infantry troops of both North Korean army (NKA) and the Communist Chinese forces (CCF). There were artillery or armored troops in the area. The NKA units served concurrently security forces and policemen, and the CCF troops were responsible for right military installations. The civilian population of Sinuiju was allowe edom of movement except in areas permanently guarded by the CCF: airfields; bridge over the Yalu River, particularly the bridge approach on the ean side; the main railroad passenger station; and the railroad bridges on Sinuiju-P'yongyang line (N 40-06, E 124-24) (YE1039). Friendly relations sted between the NKA and CCF troops, mainly because the functions of each c clearly defined. NKA and CCF troops stationed in Sinuiju equalled the strength of about one antry regiment, and were distributed as follows: CCF- one battalion. (1) One company guarded the airfield. (2) One company, quartered in wood and earthen huts built into the ground near the rail line and the bridge approach, guarded the bridge over the Yalu River. * (3) One company was responsible for the security of the central station, 5 with the company post in the school building known as the "Hall of	đ
the no as guar free the Kord the eximal were	Sinuiju, North Korea was occupied by infantry troops of both North Korean army (NKA) and the Communist Chinese forces (CCF). There were artillery or armored troops in the area. The NKA units served concurrently security forces and policemen, and the CCF troops were responsible for right military installations. The civilian population of Sinuiju was allowe edom of movement except in areas permanently guarded by the CCF: airfields; bridge over the Yalu River, particularly the bridge approach on the ean side; the main railroad passenger station; and the railroad bridges on Sinuiju-P'yongyang line (N 40-06, E 124-24) (YE1039). Friendly relations sted between the NKA and CCF troops, mainly because the functions of each c clearly defined. NKA and CCF troops stationed in Sinuiju equalled the strength of about one antry regiment, and were distributed as follows: CCF- one battalion. (1) One company guarded the airfield. (2) One company, quartered in wood and earthen huts built into the ground near the rail line and the bridge approach, guarded the bridge over the Yalu River. * (3) One company was responsible for the security of the central station, 5 with the company post in the school building known as the "Hall of	đ
the no as guar free the Kord the eximal were	Sinuiju, North Korea was occupied by infantry troops of both North Korean army (NKA) and the Communist Chinese forces (CCF). There were artillery or armored troops in the area. The NKA units served concurrently security forces and policemen, and the CCF troops were responsible for right military installations. The civilian population of Sinuiju was allowe edom of movement except in areas permanently guarded by the CCF: airfields; bridge over the Yalu River, particularly the bridge approach on the ean side; the main railroad passenger station; and the railroad bridges on Sinuiju-P'yongyang line (N 40-06, E 124-24) (YE1039). Friendly relations sted between the NKA and CCF troops, mainly because the functions of each c clearly defined. NKA and CCF troops stationed in Sinuiju equalled the strength of about one antry regiment, and were distributed as follows: CCF- one battalion. (1) One company guarded the airfield. (2) One company, quartered in wood and earthen huts built into the ground near the rail line and the bridge approach, guarded the bridge over the Yalu River. * (3) One company was responsible for the security of the central station, 5 with the company post in the school building known as the "Hall of	đ

	D-E-C-R-E-T			i -
	- 2 -			,
b. N K	4 - two battalions.
(1	One battalion was quartered in the main strestation. 5	eet in front of	the centra	1.
(2	One company was detached for guard duty.
	Two companies were quartered in the center of the Rumanian hospital.	of the city, not	far from
of one NKA tro	NKA and the CCF troops were housed in either ructed houses, or former administration builds company of CCF troops who guarded the bridge cops were equipped with Russian submachine guns the CCF troops were armed only with Russian streraft battery was posted on the Yalu River brah.	ings, with the exon the Yalu. Hal s, and half had F	cception If the Russian	50X1-HU
	NKA troops wore winter uniform	ng 「
girls, formed usually	identical to those worn by the ition of red, light blue, or yellow shoulder be wear grade stripes, but they did wear militar wearing the same uniform and shoulderboards as a minor part of the NKA. Their duties were in marched in the last rank of a detachment and ed into an independent corps.	e CCF troops exce coards. The CCF y decorations. those of the so determinable by	troops Young ldiers	50X1-HUI organiz double methodi underwe The fav in rela	rite recreation of the NKA troops was playing races. When the soldiers played volleyball, on often watched lackadaisically Resketball	ests of endurance rossed the city of dwas organized sonal effects, in volleyball and of the city.	e were in for ncluding engaging
	omments			50X1-HU
	e are probably also construction or engineering		٠	· ·
	bridge over the Yalu River connects Sinuiju to			***
F 12	4-23) by a single track railroad.	, Aircuig, China (.W 40-09,	• .
				50X1-HU
4. dete	Comment. The camouflaging was excellent and cted from the air.	d could not be e	asily
5.	Comment. Central railroad station is p	resumably meant.		50X1-HU
6. Chin	Comment. see national sport; basketball courts are foun	haskethall is	the	50X1-HUN
troc	os are stationed.	d everywhere tha	. COF	50X1-HU
	S-E-C-R E T			50X1-HU